At the Edmundston Regional Hospital, on April 30, 2025, at the age of 92 years and 8 months, Father Rino Thériault passed away. He was a resident of Edmundston and the son of the late Mr. Patrick Thériault and the late Mrs. Irène Martin.

Born on August 29, 1932, in Ste-Anne-de-Madawaska, he completed his primary education at Ste-Anne-de-Madawaska School (1939-1947), his classical secondary studies at Collège Saint-Louis in Edmundston (1947-1954), his theological studies at the Grand Séminaire de Québec (1954-1958), and his catechetical studies at Laval (1966-1968).

He was ordained a priest on June 1, 1958, at the church of Ste-Anne-de-Madawaska by Bishop J. Roméo Gagnon, bishop of the Edmundston diocese. Father Rino Thériault served as vicar in several locations: at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral in Edmundston (1958-1966), in Drummond (1968-1972), and in St-Quentin (1983-1984). He was later appointed parish priest of St-André (1984-1994) and of St-Jacques (1994-2007). He was also director of the diocesan catechesis office (1972-1982). From 2007 to 2025, he served as a collaborating priest at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral and the Notre-Dame-des-Sept-Douleurs Church.
